State Presidents Update

Here we are over 25% through my year already. September brought several Aerie visits (71 so far) for Linda and I. Met many nice Eagles and answered many questions, offered some advice and referred some to the State and Grand secretary.

On Sept. 16th Linda and I, along with state mom and dad Bob and Alice Bradstock, traveled to Scioto Country Club for a talk on medical ethics funded by an endowment started years ago by the Ohio Eagles through state secretary Maynard "Blackie" Floyd.

While there we met Dr. Mekhjian who treated Blackie and noted he still had photos of them together. He forwarded same to me and anyone who would like to see them e-mail me at Organizational Leadership was in Fairborn on September 25th and 26th. A good time was had by all. A $10,000.00 donation was given to the Ohio School for the Blind. Many thanks to Tom Smith for his hard work setting up and running the bar. Also thanks to those who worked at the bar and to Madam State President Gwen and all the ladies who did the food. It was great. Also a huge thank you to Chuck Sharp, the "Mad Hatter" Gordon Wooley and my wife Linda for selling tickets plus all who bought them and donated to my charity, the "Walking Machine" at OSU. We took in over $1,000. Wonderful job by all involved. Lastly thanks to Bill Isaacs for setting-up and dealing with the hotel. Please attend your upcoming Zone Conferences and support those Aeries.

Ohio State Aerie President, Jim Donaldson
