

BILL ISAACS
STATE SECRETARY

Bill joined Dayton Aerie #321 in 1984. He has filled all chairs of the Aerie and was President in 1993. He then continued his efforts with the Eagles and became a District #15 officer, advancing through the chairs. He was Deputy State President and then went through the chairs of the Southwest Zone; he was an Ohio State Officer for two years before becoming your Ohio State Secretary.

Bill and his wife Margie have been married 36 years and have one son, Benjamin. They also have numerous animals in their lives that keep their household going without ever having time for a dull moment. Bill retired from the City of Dayton as a Supervisor for Public Works after 31 years.

Bill's hobbies are golf, playing music, and enjoying the Eagles.
